Effective Documenting, Coding and Billing in the Dental Practice

Are you getting paid for everything you are producing?
Are you accurately identifying and billing the correct procedure at the right time?
Are you frustrated by repeated requests for additional documentation?
Accurate coding begins and ends in the clinical operator— not the front desk. From the patient's first diagnostic radiograph to the successful conclusion of their evaluation visit appropriate coding is one of the critical keys to successful and stress free reimbursement.

Payment must accompany all orders.

How that documentation later becomes your bank deposit is yet another story. The entire team has to be singing from the same song book, page and stanza for the simplification to take place. Everyone from the doctor, hygienist, clinical assistant, business agent and office administrator has their own individual yet interdependent role.

Coding and Billing Analysis Includes:

- A documentation process created to build upon your existing administrative and clinical systems.
- Customized course of action will be designed based on the results of the analysis.
- Coding and Claims Submission Manual
- Two, 45 minute phone consultations to discuss and facilitate your action plan.

Additional learning and follow-up sessions are available and will be designed to fit your individualized administrative and clinical needs. Get started by calling 800-344-2633. Starting at $625.
